Purchase of Typewriter Leather-Cases. (Underwood)

General and Revenue Secretariat | File No. D. 13 of 194 | [App. F. III-2

Serial No.

1 There are 6 typewriters (5 Underwoods and 1 Remington) in use in the R.A. & L.C. office, of which one (Underwood) is of brief size and 5 are of foolscap size. Only 3 (2 Underwoods & 1 Remington) of these have leather-cases and the rest require to be provided with the same.

2 In connection with meetings of the R.A., all these machines have to be taken to and from Mysore, twice a year. On this account, there is considerable risk of these very costly machines sustaining damage since they have no more protection than tin covers could afford and they are handled by office-peons, bullock cartmen and platform coolies who cannot be expected to take proper care of them.

3 It is therefore submitted that 3 leather-cases, as detailed below, may kindly be ordered to be purchased:—

1 Underwood - Brief size,
2 Underwoods - Foolscap size (11" frame).

The Spc will, if approved, be requested to place orders with the concerned firms.

4 It is ascertained that prices have not been fixed by the Spc in the case of typewriter leather-cases. The total cost, however, is not expected to go beyond Rs. 350/-.

SEN 7.1.41. 5 The approximate savings in the budget of this Dept. will be known about the middle of May, when the question of purchase of the leather cases may be decided upon.

12 The S.P.C. called for tenders from four firms, of which two firms, viz., Remington Rand Inc. and Addison & Co., have not quoted at all. The quotation of Messrs. *Blackwood Bryson & Co., is Rs.105 for a leather-case of brief size and Rs.95 for foolscap size, f.o.r. Bangalore. These, more or less, have been the prevailing rates for a long time past. The rates quoted by the Typewriter *Mart, viz., Rs.50 for brief size and Rs.40 for foolscap size, are incredibly low, but it may be worth while verifying the kind, quality and durability of the articles.

13 If approved, the S.P.C. Office will be requested to state whether the Typewriter Mart have so far supplied leather cases to any offices and if so whether the same have been found satisfactory. Otherwise the S.P.C. Office may be requested to enquire of the Typewriter Mart whether they are prepared to send the required number of *cases on approval, failing which an order may be placed with the other tendering firm, viz., Blackwood Bryson & Co.

* 2 for 11" cylinder, and 1 for 14" cylinder.

14 The expenditure involved in the latter case, viz., Rs.295/- may kindly be sanctioned in the meanwhile, the amount being met from the expected savings out of the allotment for the General Elections.

17) The Type-writing machines of the R.A and D.C offices are being taken twice every year to Mysore. To protect them in the course of transit leather cases are absolutely necessary. Of the six machines in the offices, three are provided with such cases while the remainder are not. A sum of Rs 29/- only may be sanctioned from the expected savings under the grant for the introduction of the Reforms, for the purchase of three cases. The cheaper variety has not been supplied so far and may not be durable. Blackwood Bryson's cases may be purchased.
